

CODE OF CONDUCT

2nd Chilton

Scout Troop

We are friendly and considerate

We respect each other

We look after our own and other people's property

We do not discriminate

We always tidy up after ourselves

We find the courage to try new things

We listen to others

but has courage in all difficulties.

We do not interrupt

but makes good use of time and is careful of possessions and property.

We do what the leaders ask us

A Scout has self-respect and respect for others

We work hard and share work equally

We do not waste time or muck around

